$100,000 At-Stake During International Agri-Center Golf Classic

TULARE, Calif.—The 15th annual International Agri-Center Golf Classic is Sept. 8, 2006 at the Tulare Golf Course.

A $100,000 prize, Challenger tractor and Buick Lucerne are at stake. Tournament competitors will tee-off with high expectations and serious goals in mind; all in an effort to support the International Agri-Center's Heritage Complex. All proceeds will benefit the Heritage Complex including the AgVentures! learning center, and the Antique Farm Equipment Museum.

The tournament begins at 8:00 a.m. with a "shot gun" start. In conjunction with the awards presentation at 12:30 p.m., two pre-drawn players will compete in a Shoot-Out Shot sponsored by Sprint®. The players will take one shot from 165 yards on the driving range towards the bulls-eye.

"The player who makes the hole-in-one at the Shoot-Out will walk away with $100,000! But the prizes don't stop there. Other lucky players could win a car, golf clubs or a seven day cruise for two," said Ame Quinonez, golf tournament organizer.

Golfers making a hole-in-one at other spots on the course could win a Buick Lucerne, a Challenger MT425B Tractor, $50,000, and much more.

The International Agri-Center Golf Classic is located at the Tulare Golf Course, 5320 S. Laspina St., Tulare, CA 93274. The tournament begins at 8:00 a.m. on Friday, Sept. 8, 2006.
